

Susan Power
Listening and Viewing

Segment 1: Meet Susan Power

- What were some of Susan Power's earliest experiences with writing and literature?
- Describe your early experiences with books. How did these stories shape your attitude toward reading and writing?

Segment 2: Susan Power Introduces "Museum Indians"

- How does Susan Power use her personal experiences as the basis for her nonfiction piece "Museum Indians"?
- Why do you think it is important for Susan Power to write about the cultural activities of Native Americans?

Segment 3: The Writing Process

- Why does Susan Power read aloud and listen to her sentences while she is writing and editing?
- Do you think it is important to consider the sounds of words when writing? Explain.

Segment 4: The Rewards of Writing

- What does Susan Power hope readers can gain by reading her work?
- What do you think you can learn by reading books that offer insights into other cultures?
